

NEWS & REMINDERS: WENTWORTH

May 24, 2019

Message from the Head of Wentworth

Dear Wentworth Families,

Thank you for the incredible support and encouragement that you've offered your children through an exciting two weeks of Performing Arts at Wentworth. We're so proud of the outstanding commitment and courage of our students and the joy they bring to their performances as their teachers continue to lead them down their path of achievement.

Last week we were treated to a spectacular array of band, choral, and musical concerts, all of which showcased the incredible talents of our Kindergarten through Grade 7 students. This week we were taken down the rabbit hole during two wonderful evenings of this year's Wentworth Musical, Alice in Wonderland. All costumes and sets were designed and made by our faculty and staff, who are passionate about the Arts and helping to make the experience an amazing one for audiences and performers alike.

Looking ahead to next week, our grade 2, 3, 4, and 5 students will be attending a performance of the Morven Spring Dance Showcase at Kay Meeting Theatre and grade 7 students set off on an adventure of their own to Strathcona Park Lodge for a four-day outdoor education experience.

Gr. 8-12 Spring Dance Show

Kay Meek Theatre
May 28 and 29
7:00 - 9:00pm

The Spring Dance Showcase is an annual dance presentation by the grade 8 to 12 dancers at the Kay Meek Theatre. This year, the theme is Broadway! From classics like Sound of Music to recent productions like Mean Girls, and Hamilton, On Broadway incorporates a wide variety of Broadway shows and musicals. Joining the dancers in this production are the talented choir and band students and for the first time in Collingwood dance show history, Wentworth dancers from grades 4 to 6! All the performers are so excited to join each other onstage and bring the bright lights of Broadway to Collingwood. We hope to see you all at the Kay Meek Centre on May 28 and 29 at 7pm!
